Honoring Ms. Mandy for Serving Our Children

Mandy O'Brien received the 2022 Illinois Library Association Youth Services Achievement Award.

The award recognizes an individual for outstanding local contributions to library services for young people.

And it is an award that Mandy well deserves! Since 1999, Mandy has been a vital part of the library's youth team. She loves helping kids with social and emotional learning while she is making literacy and research fun and exciting. Mandy loves connecting kids, grown-ups, and families with materials and services at the library, within the community, and globally. Leading two-year-old storytimes, coordinating Booking with a Buddy, helping with author events, and developing fun family events, like the interactive Polar Express and Sesame Street celebrations, have made Mandy's job a fun and inspiring adventure.

Booking with a Buddy

Kids entering grades 1–3 this fall can take part in this series that promotes reading during the summer. Registration begins June 1 and ends June 30 (or when capacity is reached) for events held July 10–August 3.

Mandy's Library Journey

As a child, I loved checking out books and records (yes, vinyl), attending storytimes and classes, and watching special performances and movies. A popular story from my childhood is that when a scheduling conflict arose between my four-year-old ballet class and the library storytime, I chose storytime. And the rest, as they say, is history!

Summer reading was also a great memory from my childhood. I loved seeing my name on the library wall and getting all the simple but well-earned prizes. I discovered so many great books and authors this way! One summer, my family took a vacation to Florida, and a trip to Disney World couldn't distract me from the fact that I couldn't officially finish summer reading that year.

In high school, I remember the first time I stepped into Skokie Public Library. I came with a classmate, and she laughed because she knew libraries were my happy place, and watched as I was mesmerized by the library's vast materials and services. Even in the early '90s our library was innovative, and little did I know that soon I'd be working at that very library! Fast forward to today, and I've worked at Skokie Public Library for 24 years, nearly half my life.

The library is a gold mine of information, resources, and original research and imagination. It's amazing to think of all the authors, artists, and other creators whose talents are held within the library's walls; it honestly boggles my mind!

Mandy's Secret: It's Our People

Mandy loves that the library is a happy place for so many community members, and while the building is great and the materials extensive, she believes that our staff is also amazing. She says, "I know I'm biased, but there really is someone who can answer anything. Of course, I love to find the answers for our patrons, but when I don't know or can't help, I'm not discouraged, because I know that I'll find the right person to help."

Cathy puts the fun in all the events she leads! She can get anyone excited about anything. When she visited classrooms with a quiz show, she somehow got the kids all revved up about the possibility of their team winning one red Solo cup!

—Shelley, youth services manager

When I think about the impact Cathy has had on our community over the many years she has been at the library, the first thing that comes to mind are the sights and sounds of kids and families laughing and experiencing joy and wonder.

—Richard, library director

I always get nervous before programs and Cathy's "Don't worry about it. It'll be fine" mantra makes me feel better every time. She says it like she means it!

—Gudrun, youth librarian

I met Cathy on my first day at the library in 1999. She wasn't yet working in Youth Services but wanted to. On my second day, who should interrupt my solitary lunch? Cathy! She asked to sit with me, and we've been friends ever since, with her joining the youth team later that year.

Our dynamic has always been sisterly, and while she can be the bossy older sister to my bratty little sis, I have loved every minute of working with such a bright, creative, and giving person.

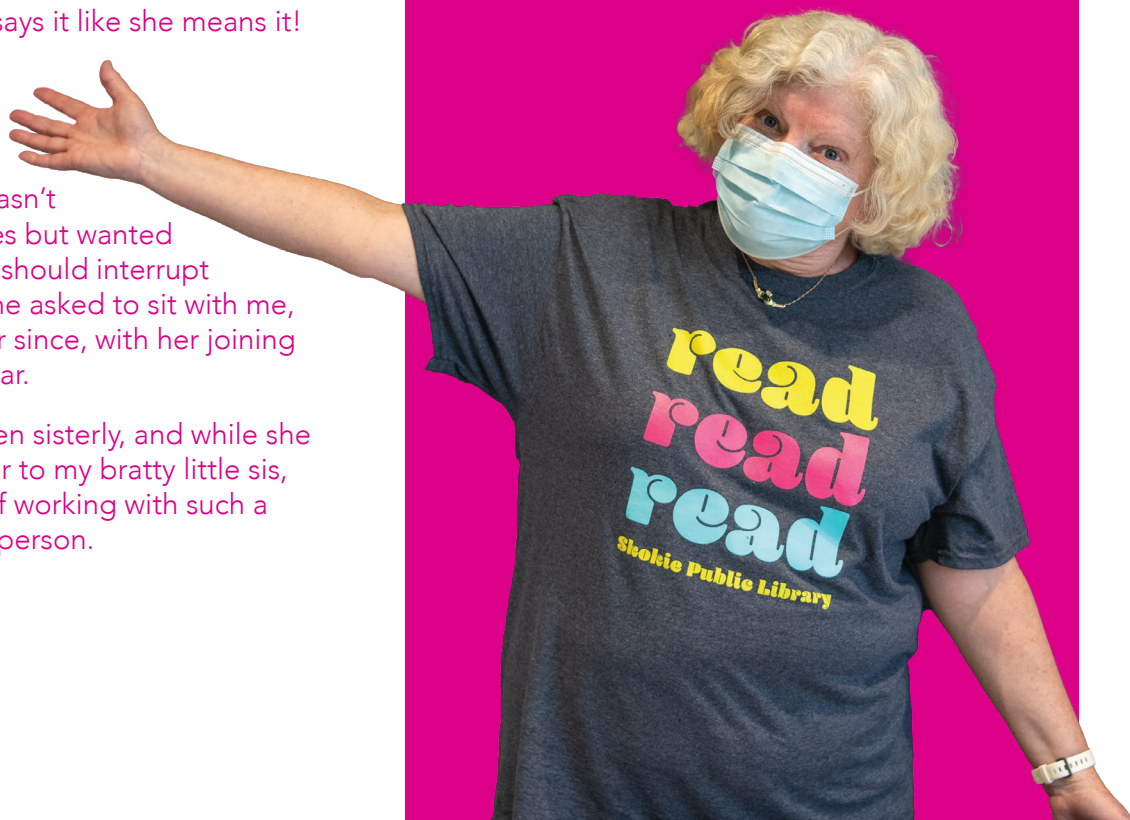

—Mandy, youth librarian

Celebrating Retiring Youth Librarian

Cathy Maassen

Cathy Maassen started working at the library in 1987 and retires in June after 36 years! We asked other staff who've worked with Cathy over the years for comments so we can all share in celebrating Cathy's service to so many in our community.

One of the many things I love about Cathy is her commitment to having fun. Cathy is well-deservedly beloved for the energy and joy she has brought to her storytimes, dance parties, campfires, and more. For so many people across Skokie—parents, kids, and parents who once came to the library as kids themselves—seeing Cathy has been a guarantee that you'll have a great time at the library, or in your classroom, or out on the Village Green.

—Amy K., learning experiences manager

I have been fortunate to see so many adults return to the library of their childhood and delight at seeing that Cathy Maassen, who told them stories when they were little, is still at the library doing storytime. Some of them now have children of their own and bring them back to attend Cathy's events. Sometimes they share stories about how she helped them when they were having a difficult time or inspired their career choices. Mostly, they, like us, seem to be in complete awe of such a tremendous life of public service.

—Angela, youth and family program coordinator

Cathy is a one-of-a-kind person and an amazing librarian. Her first thought is always for others, with kindness and compassion. She's the life of the party and a hard worker—a unique and winning combo! We will miss the energy she brings to the library.

—Katie, youth librarian

BookTok Book Talk
Tuesday, June 27, 6:30–7:30 pm

Our book discussions are a wonderful way to meet your neighbors, talk about books, and have a great time. Some groups meet in person, some online, and some use a hybrid of both, so there's very likely one that fits your schedule and interests. You can expect a lively social experience, and you might learn something new.

What happens during a book discussion?

Our expert staff discussion leaders take care to choose books that will make for an interesting chat.

Here's how they prepare:

- Looking at reviews and guides provided by publishers
- Watching or listening to interviews with the author
- Reading the book, of course—usually more than once

They're there to ask questions and keep things on track, but the group can take the conversation wherever it needs to go. There really is no wrong way to interpret a book, so there will be many different opinions and reactions, or people may share personal memories and experiences that connect to the story. You might be surprised to find that you feel very differently about the book after you hear others talk about it. In fact, sometimes the best discussions even happen when no one in the group liked the book!

Book Discussions Conversation and Connection

So do I have to read the book?

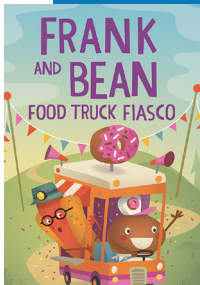

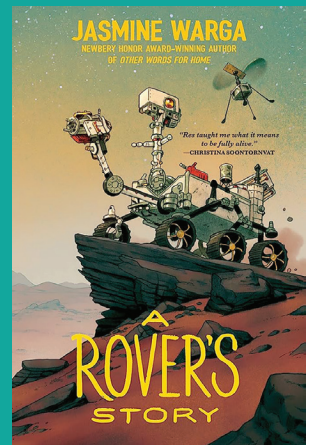

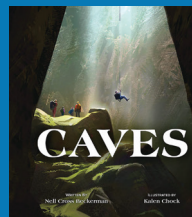

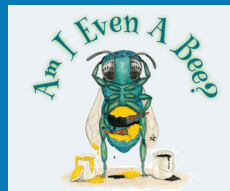

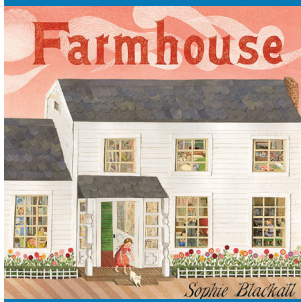

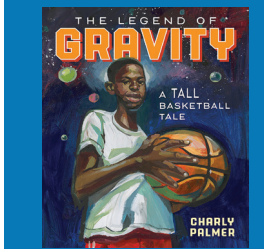

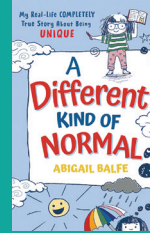

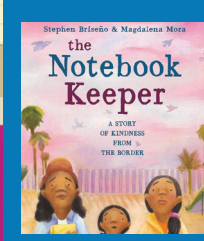

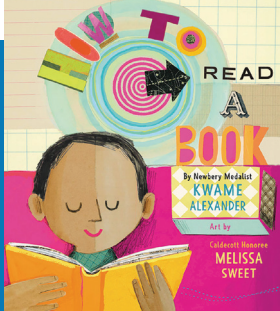

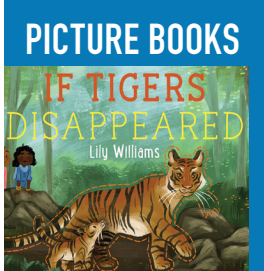

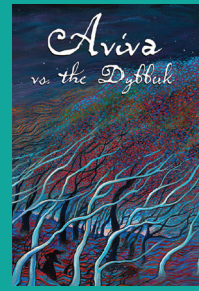

Well, yes, we hope you will. But it's not actually required. Maybe you ran out of time, or you couldn't get into it but you want to hear what others think. Come anyway, but just be prepared for spoilers because major plot points will definitely come up. The only thing you really have to do to join a book discussion is bring an open mind and open ears!
