

TEENS IN ACTION

MAKE A DIFFERENCE: DISCOVER

Learn about how the First Amendment affects you, how young people have made an impact locally and nationally, and get inspired to make your voice heard. Please track your time as you read, watch, and listen.

We ask that you provide a short reflection about each resource in the timesheet.

Note: Skokie Public Library's Teen Services Team offers this nonpartisan volunteer opportunity to help inform you so that you can stand up for causes that you are passionate about. For information about our library's vision, mission, values, and priorities, please check out our 2023-2026 Strategic Plan and Vision.

DOCUMENTARIES

Activist highlight: Freedom Summer, 120m – Check out from library

An exploration of the summer of 1964 where more than 700 student volunteers joined with organizers and local African Americans in a historic effort to register voters.

Activist highlight: If You Build It, 85m – Stream on Hoopla

In this documentary from 2012, two designers/activists lead local high school students on a build project that show the power of design thinking to re-invent not just their community but their own sense of what's possible.

Activist highlight: The Most Dangerous Man in America, 94m – Stream on Kanopy

The Academy-Award nominated film follows Daniel Ellsberg, a high-level Pentagon official and Vietnam War strategist, who leaks 7,000 pages of top secret documents to the press. His actions led directly to one of America’s most important free speech cases and the end of the Vietnam War.

Activist highlight: The Revolution Generation, 79m – Check out from library

A film which shows examples of young leaders working to revolutionize systems that have “failed their generation,” and how today’s youth can stand up for issues they believe in.

Activist highlight: Us Kids, 96m – Check out from the library

A documentary film that centers on the March For Our Lives movement, following gun violence survivors like Emma Gonzalez, Samantha Fuentes, David Hogg, and other teenage activists.
